Hi Parents,

Update on Google Classroom

It's great that more kiddies are now using Google from home more than ever before.

We are bound to have some technical blips but please persevere!

We soon hope to increase our 'Live' session on Google from 3 to 5 per week.

As I stated yesterday ... step by step.

Let's move forward together. Well Done!

This lovely email from one of the Reception mums made me smile....and thank you to mum for sharing - I know there will be many parents who have similar stories.Well Done Mum, it's great that you are cracking on despite the difficulties
It's also great that her child is expressing her views.

Mum writes:-

Mr Huckstep,
I thought you'd like to know Jennifer's review of the Google chats with Miss Goforth.

"I like it when I see Miss Goforth on mummy's tablet, and my friends too". "Miss Goforth gives me fun things to write, not like mummy".

POOR MUMMY! 🤔 🙄 🤗 🤗 (Jennifer's Mum was happy for me to share this with you as she knows other parents having similar experiences.)

Remember: We are all in this together. We will all pull through together. Well done, Mum!- you deserve a treat. - 🍫 🍷 🌷

Finally, another Reception child working very hard at home:-

The classteacher, Mrs Waller writes:-

I have wanted to share with you a lovely example of how Eva W has been learning to recognise and match coins to values of items in her play shop at home. Who said maths isn't fun!

Well done Eva

Regards

G Huckstep
