Hi Parents

GREAT NEWS! – After many days of trying, Mr Galloway – our ‘films man’ - has managed to piece together some saved footage from our faulty hard drive and this weekend I am hoping to send you part of our Phase III Production (Pantomime style!). It is not totally complete but have a cuppa, put your feet up and have a smile (it's about 23 minutes long so far).

The hard drive is due back from the laboratory so we hope that all other film will also go out soon.

Week 2 (next week) of our Lockdown Home Learning will continue in a similar format to this week's session.

Soon after, (week 3) w/b 25th January, we will be increasing the Google Meeting to daily.

We will soon also be adding optional work onto our website for those families who requested more and more work. I attach Expectations for Remote Learning at Home. These sessions are increasingly important and our expectation is that kids tune in all ready to learn! So far they have been brilliant. Well done kids!

Regards
