Hi Parents

HELP WITH HOME LEARNING

You are doing really great – despite all your different home circumstances – the effort, determination and sheer keenness to give your best is really shining through.

I know some days or weeks are better than others.... I also know that kids can often seem like angels but other times crazy scallywags... then other times raging monsters!!!

But, nationwide we hear, and especially at St Andrew's we are always promoting that 'we are all in this together...'

On the radio and various TV channels there are programmes put together on 'Home Learning' and sharing families' successes, worries, heart breaks etc – just like I attempt to do by sharing good work, good ideas etc in my regular emails newsletters.

A good programme I have heard about is by the This Morning news team. It is called: This Morning's Home Schooling Club – tips and tricks to help with Home Schooling. For further details it's best if you can download the 'THIS MORNING'S APP'. You can also enter 'star of the week'!!

Hope this helps.

'We will pull through together'.

Regards
