This Sunday, I will, as usual, be laying a wreath at the town centre Cenotaph for the 'Old Contemptibles' of World War 1 - these soldiers were the first into battle in 1914.

Thank you to those who have sent me Remembrance items from home...very special and much appreciated. Today I share with you a lovely poppy crucifix made by Fletcher Sharp's (Y5) gran. This now takes pride of place on our school Altar table.( see photos below)

Mia Robinson (Nursery) shining the Spirit of St Andrew's ...an all round superstar showing her enthusiasm

in everything. 👍 🏅

Amelia (Y4) and mum ,Autumn Wreath making during half term holiday.... Super craft work . I adore sharing work which shows adults and kiddie working together. Well done 👍 🏅
