Hi Parents...Keep Safe.

Over the final couple of weeks before we return I am sending through lots of different images of our school for you to share with your kiddies. Please ask them questions as to if they know exactly where the photos were taken etc.(Obviously this is harder for some to answer depending on age/ experience of our school- but it's great to talk!)

However, the intention ,as it has been right throughout these holidays, is to build confidence with our children ...let's talk about school...let's show them and remind them of the colour and friendship that awaits them.
